License conditions

Licenses are provided subject to the following easy to understand conditions. By signing this License and paying the License fee you agree to fully comply with these conditions of usage as follows:

1. The license fee is payable, in advance of the showing(s), to Friends & Heroes Productions Ltd.
2. This license fee is NON TRANSFERABLE and NON-RETURNABLE whether or not the licensed showing(s) actually take place.
3. The DVD material itself required to show the programs must be obtained separately. You may not use this license with episodes recorded from television, cable, satellite, internet feeds or in any other way.
4. You may use the Friends and Heroes registered trademarks, eg our logos and images only under the terms of the "Publicity Pack" on the Friends and Heroes web site. You must not claim to represent Friends and Heroes.
5. The organizer of the showings is responsible for obtaining any equipment necessary to show these programs.
6. The organizer is responsible for complying with all legal requirements relating to the showing – including safety and licensing of the venue.
7. This license does not allow you to make copies of any part of the DVDs for any purpose whatsoever. This would be a serious breach of our copyright and would lead to immediate termination of this license (without refund), and possible further legal action.
8. This license does not allow broadcasting of Friends and Heroes episodes across any medium.
9. Friends & Heroes Productions Ltd does not consider freewill offerings forming part of a service of Christian Worship to be an "Admission Charge"
10. Your organization or event may require a music performance license for any performance of music products - including Friends and Heroes DVD videos.
